To the READER.

THE Accomplishments of Mr. Edmund Cocker in the Ingenious Art of Fair, Exact, and Curious Writing and Arithmetick, are sufficiently known to the World by the many Books he has Published: And it cannot be imagined, but that a Person who had attained to so much Perfection in Writing and Arithmetick, must likewise have a true Sentiment of the Art of Speaking and Reading: And the Education of Youth being allowed by all to be of so necessary use and concernment to a Nation in general, as well as to the well-being of Posterity, it ought not to be neglected; but should be the endeavour of all Parents, that have Opportunity and Ability, to Educate their Children in Reading (as well as Writing) which may not only free them from gaining their Subsistence by such Slavish Labour as the Ignorant and Illiterate are subjected to, but may likewise be very helpful to them in the great Concern of a Future Life, by enabling them to read and understand the Word of God for the Salvation of their Immortal Souls.

Now though there are other Books of this kind already Published, yet I doubt not but the Reader will find many things New, and more Useful and Diverting in this than any he hath yet met with. But the Particulars wherein it excels being too long to be here inserted, the Perusal will fully satisfy any one of the Truth thereof.

The Vowels are sometimes thus abbreviated.

ā for an ; ē for en, em ; ī for im ; ō for on, om ; ū for un, um.

As for Example.

A Souldier ūder Cōmand must be cōstāt in dāger, and not cōplain.

A Vowel is a Letter which makes a full and perfect sound of it self, without which no word can be made ; A, I, and O, are words of themselves ; as, [A] Man of words without deeds, [I] suppose no Man values ; [O] that there were not too many of them in this Age.

A is sounded short before any single Consonant ; as mad, bad, sad ; but long in words ending in e ; as made, spade, trade ; and broad in bald, ball, balk, call, halt.

E is

Of Vowels and Consonants.

E is founded short in net, fret, let, met ; long in e-di-fy, e-mu-late, e-qui-ty, sin-cere, these.

I is founded short in bit, slit, fit ; long in slice, lice, price, dice, mice.

O is founded short in not, plot, blot, shot ; long in none, bone, tone, hone.

U is founded short in dull, full, Hull, bull ; long in Ruth, truth, youth. I and u never end a word without an e ; as ver-tue, va-lue, per-sue, skie.

T is founded short in Nymph ; long in Ty-rant. T is never written in the middle of a word unless it be derived from the Greek ; as Ba-by-lon, A-po-cry-pha, Syn-a-gogue.

Again, A is not founded in Aa-ron, Ca naan, I-saac.

E is not founded in the middle of a word ; as George, heard, moneth, Tues-day.

I is not founded in car-vi-age, mar-vi-age, Par-li-a-ment, fa-shi-on, ve-ni-son, juice, de ceive, nei-ther.

O is not founded in da-mo-sel, goal, cou-rage, cour-te-ous, dou-ble, dou-blet, youth.

U is not founded in guard, gues, guide, soul, buy, har-bour, Sa-vi-our, ti-me-rous.

T is not founded in Mon-key, At-tur-ney, Coun-trey.

Of Consonants.

The sound of Consonants seems to be b bee, c cee, d dee, f ef, g gee, j jee, k ca or ka, l el, m em, n en, p pee, q cu or ku, r ar or er, s es, t tee, u yu, x ex, y yi, z zed.

Consonants without Vowels will compound no word, nor found, but gld must stand for glad, blđ for bled, brm for brim, blck for block, plck for pluck.

B is not founded in words of one Syllable ; as lamb, dumb, womb, thumb, comb.

C is not founded in con-sci-ence, as-cent, scep-ter, in-diſt-ment, seche-dule, Scy-ſhi-an.

D is not founded in friend-ship, hand-maid, hand-some, hand-ker-cher.

G is not founded in sign, feign, reign ; nor in their compounds, as-sign, feig-ned, so-ve-reign.

H is not founded in cha-rac-ter, se-pul-chre, Christ-i-an, cho-ter, chy-mi-cal, rheum, rhe-to-ric, chro-no-lo-gy.

K is not founded after c in the same Syllable ; as luck, deck, sick, lock, pluck.

L is

L is not founded in Malm-sey, calf, half, talk, walk, Bri-Stol, Lin-colln.

N is not founded in damn, con-demn, kiln, colunn, au-tunn, hymn.

P is not founded in Psalm, tempt, re-demp-ti-on, sump-tu-ous, Psal-te-ry, symp-tom.

S is not founded in Is-land, Vis-count.

W is not founded in two, shad-dow, wid-dow.

In some few words there are two or three Letters that are not founded ; as, ch in sche-dule, schism, schis-ma-tick ; gh in de-light, al-migh-ty, ri-gh-te-ous ; ue in e-pi-logue, ca-ta-logue, pro-ogue, re-lique, di-a-logue, con-strue ; ugh in al-though. The reason why Letters are written though they are not pronounced, is, sometimes to shew the propriety of our English Tongue, and sometimes to shew that the words are derived from Latin, and other Languages ; as debt, doubt, sign, reign, Ile, Psalm.

A Syllable is joining several Letters together ; and every Syllable must have a Vowel ; therefore let the Learner count them on his Fingers ; as a-bo-mi-na-ti-on, ex-tra-or-di-na-ri-ly, com-man-de-ment.

If two Vowels come together, and are both fully pronounced, put the first Vowel to the former Syllable, and the latter to the following Syllable ; as mu-tu-al, qui-et, co-equal, triumph, co-e-ter-nal.

If a Single Consonant come between two Vowels, it must be joined to the following Vowel ; as re-port not rep-ort, a-ni-mate not an-i-mate, a-vail not av-ail, be-came not bec-ame : But a Consonant between two Vowels is usually joined to the latter ; as re-gard, re-ward. If a double Consonant come in the middle of a word, one is joined to the former, the other to the following Syllable ; as bat-ter, set-ter, of-fice, but-ter. If two Consonants come between two Vowels they must likewise be divided ; as spend-ing, sted-fast, stran-ger, trum-pet, sport-ing. When three Consonants which are proper to begin words come between two Vowels, they must be joined to the following Vowel ; as con-strain-ing not conf-trai-ning, because s t r are proper to begin words. Some words begin with Consonants of two Letters ; as draw, crew, drive, dwell, flow, fret, grow, know, plow, prince, scale, shop, slide, speak, stand, skin, snite, snare, squint, swim, that, tree, twin, when, wrong. Some words begin with three Consonants ; as Scrip-ture, phrases, strive, sprint, shreek, throw, thwack, split.

There are eight proper Dipthongs, ai, ei, oi, au, eu, ou, ee, oo, which are two Vowels sounded together in one breath ; as hair, aunt ; and six improper Dipthongs, av, ey, oy, aw, ew, ow, which though of like sound, yet are differently spelt ; for proper Dipthongs are used in the beginning or middle of a word ; as air, aid, aim, fain, ei-ther, nei-ther ; but in the end of a word they are written with a y ; as pray, prey, joy.

St. Matthew, Chap. V.

AND see-ing the mul-ti-tudes, Je-sus went up in-to a moun-tain ; and when he was set, his dis-ci-ples came un-to him.

2 And he o-pe-ned his mouth, and taught them, say-ing,

3 Blef-sed are the poor in spi-rit, for theirs is the king-dom of hea-ven.

4 Elef-sed are they that mourn, for they shall be com-for-ted.

5 Blef-sed are the meek, for they shall in-he-rit the earth.

6 Blef-sed are they which do hun-ger and thirst af-ter right-ous-ness, for they shall be fil-led.

7 Blef-sed are the mer-ci-ful, for they shall ob-tain mer-cy.

8 Blef-sed are the pure in heart ; for they shall see God.

9 Blef-sed are the peace-ma-kers ; for they shall be cal-led the chil-dren of God.

10 Blef-sed are they which are per-se-cu-ted for righ-te-ous-ness sake ; for theirs is the king-dom of hea-ven.

11 Blef-sed are ye, when men shall re-vile you, and per-se-cute you, and shall say all man-ner of evil a-gainst you fall-sly for my sake.

12 Re-joice, and be ex-ceed-ing glad, for great is your re-ward in hea-ven : for so per-se-cu-ted they the pro-phets which were be-fore you.

St. Luke

St. Luke, Chap. XV. Ver. 11.

A Certain rich man had two sons .

12 And the young-er of them said to his fa-ther, Fa-ther, give me the por-ti-on of goods that fal-leth to me. And he di-vi-ded un-to them his li-ving.

13 And not ma-ny days af-ter, the youn-ger son ga-the-red all to-ge-ther, and took his jour-ney in-to a far coun-trey, and there wast-ed his sub-stance with ri-o-tous li-ving.

14 And when he had spent all, there a-rose a migh-ty fa-mine in that land ; and he be-gan to be in want.

15 And he went and joy-ned him-self to a ci-ti-zen of that coun-trey ; and he sent him in-to his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have fil-led his bel-ly with the husks that the swine did eat, and no man gave un-to him.

17 And when he came to him-self, he said, How ma-ny hi-red ser-vants of my fa-thers have bread e-nough and to spare, and I pe-rish with hun-ger.

18 I will a-rise, and go to my fa-ther, and will say un-to him, Fa-ther I have sin-ned a-gainst hea-ven, and be-fore thee,

19 And am no more wor-thy to be cal-led thy son : make me as one of thy hi-red ser-vants.

20 And he a-rose and came to his fa-ther. But when he was yet a great way off, his fa-ther saw him, and had com-pas-si-on, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kist him.

21 And the son said un-to him, Fa-ther, I have sin-ned a-gainst hea-ven, and in thy sight, and am no more wor-thy to be cal-led thy son.

22 But the fa-ther said un-to his ser-vants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring hi-ther the fat-ted calf, and kill it ; and let us eat and be mer-ry,

24 For this my son was dead, and is a-live a-gain ; he was lost, and is found. And they be-gan to be mer-ry.

25 Now his el-der son was in the field : and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard mu-sick and dan-cing.

26 And he cal-led one of the ser-vants and as-ked what these things meant.

27 And he said un-to him, Thy bro-ther is come ; and thy fa-ther hath kil-led the fat-ted calf, be-cause he hath re-cci-ved him safe and found.

28 And

28 And he was an-gry, and would not go in : there-fore came his fa-ther out and in-treat-ed him.

29 And he an-swer-ing, said to his fa-ther, Lo these ma-ny years do I serve thee, nei-ther trans-gres-sed I at a-ny time thy com-mand-ment, and yet thou ne-ver ga-vest me a kid, that I might make mer-ry with my friends.

30 But as soon as this thy son was come which hath de-voured thy li-ving with har-lots, thou hast kil-led for him the fat-ted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make mer-ry and be glad ; for this thy bro-ther was dead, and is a-live a-gain, and was lost, and is found.

St. Luke, Chap. XVI. Verse 19.

THere was a cer-tain rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine lin-nen, and fa-red sumptuously e-ve-ry day.

20 And there was a cer-tain beg-gar na-med La-zarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores.

21 And de-si-ring to be fed with the crums which fell from the rich mans ta-ble : more o-ver the dogs came and lick-ed his sores.

22 And it came to pass that the beg-gar di-ed, and was car-ried by the an-gels in-to A-bra-hams bo-som : the rich man also di-ed and was bu-ri-ed.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes being in tor-ments, and se-eth A-bra-ham a-far off, and La-zarus in his bo-som.

24 And he cri-ed, and said, Fa-ther A-bra-ham, have mer-cy up-on me, and send La-zarus that he may dip the tip of his fin-ger in wa-ter, and cool my tongue ; for I am tor-men-ted in this flame.

25 But A-bra-ham said, Son, re-mem-ber that thou in thy life-time re-ceiv-edst thy good things, and like-wise wife La-za-rus e-vil things, but now he is com-fort-ed, and thou art tor-ment-ed.

26 And be sides all this, be-tween us and you there is a great gulf fix-ed : so that they which would pass from hence to you can-not ; nei-ther can any pass to us that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee there-fore that thou would est send him to my fa-thers house :

28 For I have five bre-thren ; that he may te-sti-fie un-to them, lest they al-so come in-to this same place of tor-ment.

29 A-bra-ham saith un-to him, They have Mo-ses and the pro-phets ; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, fa-ther A-bra-ham : but if one went to them from the dead, they will re-pent.

31 And he said un-to him, If they hear not Mo-ses and the pro-phets, nei-ther will they be per-swa-ded, though one rose from the dead.

Scripture Precepts and Sentences Alphabetically for young Beginners.

A a, A a. An-swer not a Fool ac-cord-ing to his fol-ly, least thou al-so be like un-to him.

B b, B b. Bet-ter is it to be of an hum-ble Spi-rit with the low-ly, then to di-vide the spoil with the proud.

C c, C c. Chaf-ten thy Son while there is hope, and let not thy Soul spare for his cry-ing.

D d, D d. Death and Life are in the pow-er of the Tongue, and they that love it shall eat the Fruit there-of.

E e, E e. E-ven a Child is known by his do-ings, whe-ther his work be pure, and whe-ther it be right.

F f, F f. Fool-ish-ness is bound in the Heart of a Child, but the Rod of Cor-rec-ti-on shall drive it far from him.

G g, G g. Give In-struc-ti-on to a Wise Man, and he will be yet wi-ser : Teach a Just Man, and he will in-crease in Learn-ing.

H h, H h. Hear-ken un-to thy Fa-ther that be-gat thee, and de-spise not thy Mo-ther when she is old.

I i, I i. It is an ho-nour to a Man to cease from strife ; but e-ve-ry Fool will be med-ling.

K k, K k. Keep thy Heart with all di-li-gence, for out of it are the is-sues of Life.

L l, L l. Let not thine Heart envy Sin-ners ; but be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

M m, M m. My Son, hear thou the In-struc-ti-on of thy Fa-ther, and for-sake not the Law of thy Mo-ther.

N n, N n. Now there-fore heark-en un-to me, O ye Chil-dren ; for blef-sed are they that keep my ways.

O o, O o. O ye sim-ple, un-der-stand Wi-dom ; and ye Fools, be ye of an un-der-stand-ing Heart.

P p, P p. Po-ver-ty and shame shall be to him that re-fu-seth In-struc-ti-on : but he that re-gard-eth Re-proof shall be ho-nou-red.

Q q, Q q. Quench not the Spi-rit : Prove all things, and hold fast that which is good.

R r, R r. Rich-es pro-fit not in the day of wrath : but right-e-ous-ness de-li-ve-reth from death.

The Lords Prayer.

13

S f, S f. Sloth-ful-ness cast-eth in-to a deep sleep ; and the i-dle Soul shall suf-fer hun-ger.

T t, T t. The fear of the Lord ten-deth to Life, and he that hath it shall a-bide sa-tis-fi-ed, he shall not be vi-si-ted with e-vil.

U u, U u. Un-der-stand-ing is a well-spring of Life un-to him that hath it ; but the In-struc-ti-on of Fools is fol-ly.

W w, W w. Who-so cur-seth his Fa-ther or Mo-ther, his Lamp shall be put out in ob-scure dark-ness.

Y y, Y y. Young Men, and Maid-ens, Old Men and Chil-dren, praile ye the Lord.

Z z, Z z. Zi-on shall be re-deem-ed with Judg-ment, and her Con-verts with Righ-te-ous-ness.

The L O R D's Prayer.

O U R Fa-ther, which art in Hea-ven, Hal-lowed be thy Na-me ; Thy King-dom come ; Thy Will be done on Earth as it is in Hea-ven ; Give us this day our dai-ly Bread ; and for-give us our Tres-pas-ses, as we for-give them that tres-pass a-gainst us ; and lead us not in-to Tem-pa-ti-on ; but de-li-ver us from E-vil ; for Thine is the King-dom, Pow-er and Glo-ry, for e-ver, and e-ver. A-men.

The L O R D's Prayer in Verse.

O U R Father which in Heaven art,
Lord, Hallowed be thy Name ;
Thy Kingdom come ; thy Will be done
in Heav'n and Earth the same.

Our Daily-Bread and Sustenance

Give to us day by day :

As we forgive our Debtors, so forgive our Debts we pray.

Into Temptation lead us not,

from Evil save us free ;

The Ten Commandments.

AND God spake these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thy self any Graven Image, or the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the Water under the Earth; thou shalt not bow down thy self to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Re-

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy, six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work, Thou, nor thy Son, nor thy Daughter, thy Man-servant, nor thy Maid-servant, nor thy Cattle, nor thy Stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long upon the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not Kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not Steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false Witness against thy Neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours Wife, nor his Man-servant, nor his Maid-servant, nor his Oxe, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is thy Neighbours.

Gods Judgments upon the Breakers of the Ten Commandments.

Happy shall that Man become
Who these Laws departs not from;
Blessings will descend on him,
From the Mount of Gerizim:
But from Ebal they shall hear
Curses, who Rebellious are.
Death for them attending stands
Who shall break these Just Commands:
And to those who them obey,
God proposeth Life for aye.

I. Commandment. Thou shalt have no other Gods but me.

Pharaoh drowned in the Red Sea. *Exod. 5. Chap.

WHO is the Lord, says Pharaohs hardned Heart,
That I should him obey : But by the smart
Of Gods Ten Plagues, and overflowing Flood,
He Gods Almighty Power understood.

The Egyptian Bondage Typified all
The Race of Adam in their native thrall :
And as their Temporal Saviour Moses than
Left not behind one hoof, much less a Man
Inslav'd to Pharaoh ; so the blessed Son
Of this great God hath Ransom'd every one
From that sad House of Bondage and of Pain,
Where we without Redemption else had lain :
For which great Favour he from us doth crave,
That we no other God but him should have ;
And that we love him with a reverent awe,
Which is the whole fulfilling of this Law.

Lord I beseech thee for the time to come
So wary keep me of departing from
This Law, that I may still in Heart and Hand,
Continue faithful unto this Command.

II. Com.

II. Commandment. Thou shalt not make unto thy self any Graven Image, &c.

The Golden Calf. Exod. 32. Chap.

Moses was in the Mount for Forty days,
And then did Israel corrupt their ways,
Aaron they cause a Molten Calf to make,
And thereby do the God of Heaven forsake.
Three Thousand suffered by their Brethrens hand
For offering Violence to this Command.
Mens Follies make them frequently to err,
And then they Vice for Vertue do prefer.
Their Superstition makes them think amiss
Of God; and then their service of him is Accordingly devis'd: They favour not
That Worship which their Wit hath not begot.
They fear him Tyrant-like, and dream that he
Is pleas'd with Cruelty as Tyrants be.
Some others make unto themselves a God
So mild, as if he never us'd a Rod
These evils to prevent: This Law Divine
The wandering Mind doth unto Truth confine.
Oh Christ so perfect my renewed Will,
That I this holy Precept may fulfil.

III. Commandment. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain, &c.

The Son of Shelomith stoned to Death. Levit. 24. 14.

TO fright Blasphemers we present them with
 An Emblem of the Son of Shelomith,
 Who worthily condemned was to dye,
 And stoned for his daring Blasphemy :
 Which is a Crime increased to excess,
 Though branded with an horrid guiltiness.
 He that with Oaths protests in matters vain ;
 Or swears for Truths what he himself doth feign ;
 Or tells for certain an uncertain thing ;
 Or vows to God what he neglects to bring ;
 Or maketh Vows of what are not allow'd
 Things Lawful, or things proper to be vow'd.
 Even he, who ere he be, that shall transgress
 These ways, is tainted with a guiltiness.
 For all these ways Gods Name is vainly us'd,
 And such Offences cannot be excus'd ;
 And though his Innocency he defends,
 Against this Third Commandement offends.
 My Heart, Lord God so settle in thy way,
 That I this Law may never disobey.

IV. Commandment. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath-day, &c.

The Man fioned for gathering Sticks on the Sabbath-day. Numb. 15. 32.

IF he were slain, who on the Sabbath-day
 For need did gather Sticks; Oh how shall they Escape Gods wrath, who for a Trade or Pleasure,
 Profane his holy Sabbaths without measure.
 Ah! let not those times which are set apart
 To rest the Body, to instruct the Heart,
 And to preserve a due Commemoration
 Of the most blessed means of our Salvation,
 Be judged vain; or that they do not draw
 Authority sufficient for this Law.
 Let those who for the Bodies ease and pleasure
 Part of this time allow, preserve the measure
 That's justly due; and in due manner too
 Do that which is allowable to do:
 Not for the Souls well being caring less
 Than to prevent the Bodies weariness.
 Let them who of the Soul most careful seem
 Remember still the Body to esteem.
 Come Holy Ghost so sanctifie my Heart
 That from this Law I never may depart.

V. Commandment. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, &c.

Abfalom hanged in an Oak. 2 Sam. 18. Chap.

WHat of rebellious Children will become,
 And graceless Youths view here in Abfalom
 For whose Offence, the Earth did as it were Refusal make his Bodies weight to bear.
 And Heav'n rejects it; that they might present
 Him hanging for a dreadful Monument
 Through Ages all, to warn and keep in awe
 The slights and infringers of this Law.
 He that shall break this Precept maketh snares
 Wherein to hang himself at unawares.
 We from the Parents of our Bodies have
 A Natural Being; and they justly crave
 To be obey'd in all things, but in those
 Which may the Laws of God or Man oppose.
 Besides our Parents, we to Princes too
 A Duty by this Obligation owe.
 The Fathers of our Country by this Law,
 Claim from us Honour, Loyalty and Awe.
 O Gracious God preserve a Heart in me,
 Which to this Law may still obedient be.

VI. Commandment. Thou shalt do no Murder.

Joab murders Amasa. 2 Sam. 20. 9.

Murther doth always leave a bloody stain,
Which hardly unreveng'd doth long remain ;
Unless a flood of penitent Tears it cost ;
Or until blood for innocent blood be lost.
For neither could Old Age, nor loss of time
Ever clear Joab from this horrid Crime
'Gainst Amasa : His Power, though great it was,
Could not secure him ; nor a priviledg'd place
His hoary Head from Heav'n's just Vengeance hide ;
But for this treacherous Offence he dy'd.

None had been safe, unless the bloody Sin
Forbidden here had both restrained been,
And still persued (Mischiefs to prevent )
With secret, and with open punishment :
For though like Joab (whom we represent)
Men may, by Greatness, keep off Punishment
'Till they are Old ; it will their heels pursue,
And give them, at the last, their bloody due.

Thrice holy Trinity my heart possess,
And I this Precept never shall transgress.

VII. Com-

VII. Commandment. *Thou shalt not commit Adultery.*Zimri and Cosbi slain by Phinehas. Numb. 25. Chap.

I srael is plagu'd, Zimri and Cosbi vile,
 Themselves do with Adultery defile.
 Whom zealous Phinehas in the Act doth slay;
 Thus Lust God doth with Punishment repay.

Behold this Figure, you who take delight
 To give the Reins to wanton Appetite.
 Reflect and say, Ah Lord! why may not we Struck suddenly in our pollutions be
 As well as these, and others who have been
 Surprized in the very act of Sin.
 Consider this and tremble, for no Year
 Wheels round but we of one or other hear
 Thus taken; that you might forsake the snare,
 And others be forewarn'd of coming there.

Lord from this wickedness divert our Eyes,
 That unawares it ne'r our Hearts surprize.
 Preserve us chaste and temperate we desire,
 And in such purity as thou dost require.

Let thy Love always keep my Heart in awe,
 That I may still take care to keep this Law.

Adultery.

VIII. Commandment. Thou shalt not Steal.

Achan, stoned for Theft. Josh. 7. Chap.

When pilfering Achan stole the wedge of Gold
And Babylonish Robe, Heav'n did behold
That impious Act ; would not appeased be
Till he was ruin'd with his Family.

Oh Lord vouchsafe us Grace to be content
With whatsoever thou to us hast lent
As long as life on us shall be bestown,
Let us be fed and clothed with our own.
If by a wilful or an ignorant wrong
We have detained ought which doth belong
Unto our Neighbour ; give us means and will
By restitution for our doing ill
To make amends ; or else do thou repay them
The dues which we unwillingly delay them.
Forgive thou also our unrighteousness,
That it corrupt not what we do possess.
And let us never lay our hands on what
Is portion of another Mans Estate.

My sweet Redeemer so my Heart incline,
That I may always keep this Law of thine.

IX. Com-

IX. Commandment. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy Neighbour.

Jezebel kill'd and eaten by Dogs. 1 Kings 21. Chap.

THough wicked Jezebel, vile Ahabs Wife,
By hired Witnesses took Nabals Life;
Yet where the Dogs the good Mans blood did taste,
Vengeance did her to death pursue at last.

Were this Command omitted, who could say
He should enjoy his Life or Goods one day.
Where could he be secure from perjur'd Men?
Unless God sent forth Vengeance now and then.
Or by what means might they be kept in awe,
Whose Greatness makes them fearless of this Law!
How safe seem'd Jezebel by being Great,
And yet how boldly did the Prophet threat
Succeeding Vengeance! And tho' she were high,
How low upon a sudden did she lye;
That high and low might view this dreadful sight,
And might in Truth and Honesty delight.

Lord grant that I, who others see offend,
May find out my own Errors, and amend:
Yea Lord, so teach me, and be so my guide,
That faithful to this Law I may abide.

X. Commandment. Thou shalt not covet, &c.

King Ahab slain. 1 Kings 22. Chap.

Here wicked Ahabs Folly let us mind,
Who to this Sin was wretchedly inclin'd.
He covets Naboths Vineyard in his heart,
Which soon was pierc'd with Heav'n's revenging Dart.

When once this Vice to seize on us begins,
We Crowns and Scepters change for crooked pins :
And by unlawful coveting of more,
We lose and forfeit all we had before.

Unthinking Ahab found this to his cost,
Who his whole Kingdom for a Garden lost :
And his untimely fall is on Record,
That this his wickedness might be abhor'd.

Thou who to covet think'st it no great Crime,
Consider well what wickedness in time
Arises thence, what danger and what shame,
Unless thou timely dost repent the same.

This Folly, and the sequel of it view
In Ahab, and his Guiltiness eschew.

Lord grant that all thy Laws I keep intire
In Thought, in Word, and also in Desire.

Having proceeded thus far in true Spelling, and the Learner being by this time taught to Read. I shall next proceed to that most necessary Accomplishment of Fair and Exact Writing, that so nothing may be wanting to compleat Young Persons for business.

Directions for True Writing.

THose who aim at Excellency in this most useful and necessary Art, ought to be accommodated with proper Instruments for the work. As, 1. A good Light right over against them. 2. A Desk to write on, or something leaning that you may be able to sit upright, with more ease to the Body, and less trouble to the Head, than bowing and holding it down. 3. To have a good Penknife to be kept always keen, either with a Hone or a piece of Leather with Oyl. 4. To be provided with good Quills of a Goose or Raven : If they are too hard, steep them in Water ; if too soft, lay them a short space in Embers ; scrape the Quill with the back of your Penknife, then cut off about a quarter of an Inch or a Fingers breadth from the end ; enter the Knife just at the end of its backside where you have cut ; then put in the loose end of your Quill, and holding your left Thumb on the back thereof, you may by twitching up the end of your Quill make a slit either long or short as you please ; when you have scraped your Quill smooth, not too soft nor thin, cut each side alike, and preserve the slit to such a length that you may write soft or hard as you please, and placing it on your Thumb, hold your Knife a little sloping, and cut the end of the Nib; but before you cut it through, turn your Knife downright, and cut it off: You may fashion it as you please, broader or narrower, according to the size of the Letter you intend to write.

Being furnish'd with a good Pen, next consider how to hold and manage it like a Pen-man; for,

*What's great Goliath's Spear the sevenfold shield,
Scanderbegs Sword, to one who cannot wield
Such Weapons? Or what means a well cut Quill
In th' untaught hand of him that has no Skill?*

Observe then to place your Thumb on the side of your Pen next your Breast, highest of all; place your Fore-finger next to the top of your Pen, and permit it to reach about a quarter of an inch beneath the end of your Thumb. Lastly, place your middle Finger somewhat lower than that on the farthest side of the Pen, the two Fingers being in a manner extended to their full length, the Thumb only rising in the joint. Your Hand being thus prepared for your Pen, your Pen for that, and your Paper for both; which must lye strait before you, your Arm being laid right forth, and your Elbow even with the midst of the end thereof; it being ruled either with single or double Lines, with a small pair of Compasses set at such a distance as may fit the depth of the Hand you write; or a Quill cut forked for that purpose may do as well: Then take your Ink up sparingly with the hollow side of your Pen downward; it being free from hairs, or any thing that may hinder the free passage of the Ink; you may then begin to write Copies, some of which I have here inserted for the assistance of young Learners, which being often written over will soon teach you to write with perfection.

In order whereunto you may first imitate an Alphabet of small Letters of the hand you intend to write, and practice such Letters first as may help to the making one of another: As for Example; first make a small i, then with a small stroke from the top joyned to another i it will make n; add a third i and it makes m; if you make two i's with a small stroke at bottom it will be a u, and the like, as your own observation will direct you. But always remember that,

1. All downright lines or strokes in all Hands whatsoever must be full.

2. All strokes descending from the left hand to the right must also be full.
3. All traverse or cross strokes drawn even, either from the right hand to the left, or from the left to the right must be small.
4. An even distance must be kept between one Letter and another, and betwixt word and word.
5. The whites of each Letter must be made of equal size.
6. The heads or stems of all Letters in one hand must be of the same height.
7. The tails of all Letters of the same hand must be of the same depth.
8. All compass Letters in all hands must be of equal proportion one with another.

To make the best Ink.

TAke about half a pint full of Gauls, cut them in pieces, put them into an Earthen pot, with about a quart of Beer neither too strong nor small, let them stand twelve hours; then being strained from the Gauls, put into it two Ounces of Vitriol, and almost an Ounce of Gum-Arabick; set your pot on a moderate fire to warm, not boil; then put it into an Earthen Pitcher, well glazed within, and keep it for use.

To write with Gold.

BUY some shells of Gold, which are about six pence a piece, put to it a spoonful of Spring-water wherein Gum Arabick hath been dissolved; temper it together with a clean Pensil till it appears a little thick, dip a new Pen therein, always stirring it about with the Pencil when you take a pen-full, wherewith having written on good Paper, or rather Vellum (as with ordinary Ink) when it is thoroughly dry, rub it with a Dogs tooth, laying your Paper on an even Table, and polish or burnish every Letter.

*And thus you quickly will behold,
Your Writing brightly shine with Gold.*

Alphabetical Copies for Youth to write out.

ALL Gods Commandments are divinely pure;
By keeping them, men keep their Souls secure.
By Pen or Pencil, who, to mortal eye,
Can represent immense Eternity.

Count Gods Eternal Word thy noblest Treasure,
 Which read, and practic'd, yields eternal pleasure.
Defer not till to morrow to essay
 What worthy Acts you can perform to day.
Estates to gain, men toil and break their rest ;
 But competency, with Content, is best.
Fair Writing then to excellence doth rise
 Most, when the Pen is most in exercise.
Greatness and Goodness make a man compleat ;
 But few there be that are both good and great.
He that for pleasure forfeits his Estate,
 Has bought Repentance at too dear a rate.
If to excel the best you emulate,
 The most excelling patterns imitate.
Know thy self first, and then begin to scan
 The imperfections of another man.
Learning, and the choice documents of Truth,
 Should be infus'd into us in our Youth.
More confidently none themselves advance,
 Than the unworthy Sons of Ignorance.
No wonder if the best men sometimes fail,
 Since all are mortal, and their Natures frail.
Of bad Examples, Satans baits, beware,
 And shun them as a Pestilential Air.
Practice gives motion to the Pen-mans hand,
 Fair Writings excellencies to command.
Quoth Will, I am resolv'd reveng'd to be :
 Quoth Wit, have patience, and be rul'd by me.
Refuse to act to day what may to morrow
 Procure your torment, or at least your sorrow.
Still acquiesce in Providence divine,
 What's not to day, to morrow may be thine.
To day we laugh and frolick, and to morrow
 We sigh and groan upon the bed of sorrow.
Use prudence, temperance and moderation,
 Shun commendation, and hate ostentation.
When to the World you others faults make known,
 Ingeniously reflect upon your own.
Xerxes with tears survey'd his numerous Host,
 Knowing how soon by death they would be lost.
Your memory with choicest treasures store :
 Thieves cannot make the rich in knowledge poor.
Zeal without Knowledge doth the Judgment taint,
 Although the Zealot thinks himself a Saint.

There are divers Points, Stops and Pauses, which are very useful both in Writing and Printing, and are carefully to be observed in Reading; namely these following,

Comma ————— (,)	A note of Admiration ———— (!)
Semicolon ————— (;)	A Parenthesis ————— ( )
Colon ————— (:) )	Obelisk ————— (†)
Full Point ————— (.)	Hyphen ————— (-)
Asterism ————— (*)	Apostrophe, a word cut off-- (')
A note of Interrogation ———— (?)

A Comma is an half circle, which stays a Sentence awhile, like a breathing time. As for Example : Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, think on these things.

A Colon is two points (:) that stops the sentence for a while, and denotes the full but not perfect sense : As, Be careful for nothing : but in every thing by Prayer let your requests be made known to God.

A Semicolon is a point with a Comma under it (;), and notes a greater stop than a Comma, and less than a Colon : As, He that saith unto the wicked thou art righteous ; him shall the people curse.

A Period or full stop is a point after a perfect sentence, (.) at this point make a full stop, sounding the last word somewhat longer. As, Fear God, Honour the King.

A note of Interrogation always used after a Question, hath a full point and a tail above it, thus (?). At this make a full stop, sounding the whole sentence before it thus ; Who hath woe ? Who hath sorrow ? Who hath contentions ? Who hath babbling ? Who hath wounds without cause ? Who hath redness of eyes ?

A note of Admiration or Exclamation, wondering and crying out, is thus (!). As, O the depth of the riches of the knowledge and wisdom of God !

A Parenthesis is two semicircles or half moons including a sentence, thus ( ). This must be pronounced somewhat different from the rest, as being an addition to a sentence whose sense would be perfect and entire without it. As, Wherefore we would have come unto you (even I Paul) once and again; but Satan hindered us.

An Apostrophe is a Comma or Note written just over the place of a Vowel or Dipthong that is cut off. As, lo'vd for loved, I'll or I will, th' art for thou art.

Diæresis is a note of a Diphthong parted into two syllables. As re-al, mo-ved, &c.

Hyphen is a note of continuation, when a compound word is parted in the midst. As, self-deceit, self-confidence.

Asterism, or a little Star (*), is to point out something wanting.

An Index or hand thus (☞), denotes somewhat remarkable.

Lastly an Obelisk (†) always refers from the matter to the Margin.

The neglect or misplacing these Points doth often pervert the sense and true meaning of a sentence. As Prov. 14 A scorner seeketh wisdom and findeth it, not but knowledge, &c. for findeth it not; and so of the like.

Of Great Letters and Figures.

THE Learner is to remember that in Writing, Capital or Great Letters must be used either for Proper Names, or to begin Sentences : Yea some more remarkable Scriptures are Printed all in Capitals ; as, KING OF KINGS : In the Revelation, HOLINESS TO THE LORD, JEHOVAH, and the like. Capital Letters begin words ; as, Genesis, Exodus, Adam, Moses, Job, Daniel, &c. Also Sentences ; as, In the beginning. Blessed is the man, &c. The book of the generation, &c. Great Letters are likewise used for Countries, Towns, Cities, Offices, Months, Days, Sciences, &c. As, England, France, London, York, Barnet, Bromley . King, Queen, Duke, Earl, Lord, Mayor, Constable : January, February : Monday, Tuesday : Astronomy, Astrology, Navigation. When you end a Sentence with a full point, begin the next with a great Letter : As, Open rebuke is better than secret love. Faithful are the wounds of a friend, &c. And in Poetry every Line must begin with a Capital Letter ; For Example ;

For Vertues sake, now in your youthful prime,
 Be a good husband of your precious Time ;
 Make Action mistress of your best Affections,
 Court her, she's beautiful beyond objections :
 She crowns her lovers with the best of things,
 And gains them Favour with the best of Kings.

Of Figures and Numbers.

NEXT to Spelling, Reading and Writing, succeed Figures, Numbers and Arithmetick. Now the Figures and Numeral Letters whereby Numbers are exprest (and which will enable you easily to find any Chapter, Psalm, or Verse in the Bible (or elsewhere) are these following.

I One 1.
 II Two 2.
 III Three 3.
 IV Four 4.
 V Five 5.
 VI Six 6.

 XXVI Twenty six 26.
 XXVII Twenty seven 27.
 XXVIII Twenty eight 28.
 XXIX Twenty nine 29.
 XXX Thirty 30.
 XL Forty 40.
 L Fifty 50.
 LX Sixty 60.
 LXX Seventy 70.
 LXXX Eighty 80.
 XC Ninety 90.
 C One Hundred 100.
 CC Two Hundred 200.
 D Five Hundred 500.
 M A Thousand 1000.
 MDCXCVI 1696.

Beside these Letters and Figures, there are several Marks and Characters used in divers Arts and Sciences, which may be useful to be known. As for Example ;

Musicians distinguish their Notes by these Marks following,

— Semibref, — Minim, — Crotchet.

Astronomers and Astrologers distinguish the Signs and Planets in the Heavens by the following Characters. The seven Planets are, ♄ Saturn, ♃ Jupiter, ♂ Mars, ☉ Sol, ♀ Venus, ☿ Mercury, ☾ Luna. The twelve Signs are, ♈ Aries, ♉ Taurus, ♊ Gemini, ♋ Cancer, ♌ Leo, ♍ Virgo, ♎ Libra, ♏ Scorpio, ♐ Sagittarius, ♑ Capricornus, ♒ Aquarius, ♓ Pisces. The * Sextile, □ Quadral, △ Trine, & Opposition, & Conjunction.

Apothecaries make Marks, Letters and Characters, to signify Weight, Measure and Words; as, (m.) manipulus, an handful, (p.) a pugil, or half an handful, (gr.) a grain, (ʒ) a scruple, (ʒ) a dram, (℥) an ounce, (℔) semissis, half a pound, (℔) libra, a pound, (℞) recipe, or take, (ana) a like quantity, (q. l.) quantum satis, a sufficient quantity, (q. l.) quantum libet, as much as you please.

Like-

Likewise in our English Writing we borrow many abbreviations from the Latin ; as, (e. gr.) exempli gratia, for example. So in sums of money we put over them L. s. d. q. which signifies, libri, solidi, denarii, quadrantes, pounds, shillings, pence, farthings ; so that the sum is four pounds, five shillings, ten pence half-penny.

Again, (p.) stands for pagina or page, (§) sectio, division, S. P. Q. L. Senatus Populusque Londini, Senate and people of London. D. D. Doctor of Divinity, (N. B.) Nota bene, Note well, SS. Th. D. Sacrosancta Theologia Doctor, Doctor of Divinity, Qu. stands for Question, Ans. Answer, Sr. Sir, Dr. Doctor, Esq. Esquire, Jan. for January, Sept. for September, Cant. for Canterbury, Oxon for Oxford, C. C. C. Corpus Christi Colledge, Mat. for Matthew, Col. for Colossians, Rev. for Revelations, Gen. for Genesis, and the like ; W. R. William Rex : So sometimes two words or syllables are contracted into one ; as, I'm for I am, Il'e for I will, er'e for ever, or'e for over. Many other contractions are used, which your observation will make casie to you.

All Numbers are written with Ten Characters or Figures, of which the last is called a Cypher, and of it self signifieth nothing ; but serveth, according as it is placed, to increase, or diminish the value of another Figure, to which it is either joined or prefixed. The Figures are 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0. Numbers are either single or compound ; the single are as 2, 4, 6, 7 ; compound when two, three, four or more figures are joyned together ; as 35 is thirty five ; 355 is three hundred fifty five ; 3558 is three thousand five hundred sixty eight ; 1596 one thousand six hundred ninety six.

But not having room for an Arithmetick, I shall only insert some few Examples of Addition and Substraction. Suppose then that

	l.	s.	d.
John Swift owes you	02	03	04
Thomas Slow	04	05	02
William Paynone	07	09	03
Nich. Dul-nan	11	13	11
Edward Careless	15	19	01

If you would cast up the whole together, you must begin with the outmost row of Figures on the right hand, and say, 1 and 11 is 12 ; then make a full point against it : Then 3 and 2 is 5, and 4 is 9 ; put down 9 under a line at the bottom.

tom : Proceed next to the second row of Figures, and say, 1 I carry and 9 is 10, and 3 is 13, and 9 is 22, and 5 is 27, and 3 is 30. Then say 30 and 10 before the 9 is 40, and 10 before the 3 is 50; that is 2 pound 10 shillings. Put down the 10 under the line, and proceed to the next row of Figures, and say, 2 I carry and 5 is 7, and 1 is 8, and 7 is 15, and 4 is 19, and 2 is 21. Then say 10 before the 5 is 31; 10 before the 1 is 41 : So the sum is thus ;

Next it will be necessary to give an account of English Money, Weights and Measures, in a few plain Tables. And first of Coyns.

Some write that Weight and long measure were originally deduced from a Barley-corn, taken out of the middle of the Ear, which is called a Grain of Wheat, and is the least weight used in England; of which there are several sorts; as Troy, Averdupois and Apothecaries Weights.

With Troy weight are weighed Bread, Silver, Gold, &c. whereof, 24 grains make one penny-weight.

20 penny-weight make an ounce.

12 ounces make a pound.

By Averdupois weight is weighed Butter, Cheese, Flesh, Wax, Lead, Pitch, Rosin, Tallow, Tin, Copper, Hemp, Iron, and all Grocery Wares, &c. whereof, 16 drams make an ounce.

16 ounces make a pound.

28 pounds make a quarter of an hundred.

4 quarters make an 100 weight, or 112 pound.

Wooll is also weighed by the same weight, but the divisions are somewhat different; for,

7 pounds is a clove.

2 cloves is a stone.

2 stone is a todd.

6 todods or 12 stone is a wey.

2 weys is a sack.

And 12 sacks is a Last of Wooll.

Apothecaries weights are the same in the main with Troy weight, only the subdivision of the pound is different; for, Thus marked.

20 grains is a scruple ————— ʒ.

3 scruples make a dram ————— ʒ.

8 drams is an ounce ————— ʒ.

12 ounces is a pound weight ————— lb.

Of Liquid Measures.

THE least denomination in Liquid measure is a Pint, which was formerly deduced from Troy weight, a pound of Wheat Troy making a pint of Ale. By this measure is sold Wine, Beer, Mum, Cyder, and other Liquors.

- 2 pints make a quart : 2 quarts a pottle.
- 2 pottles a gallon.
- 8 gallons is a firkin of Ale, Soap or Herrings.
- 9 gallons is a firkin of Beer.
- 10 gallons and an half a firkin of Salmon or Eels.
- 2 firkins make a kilderkin.
- 42 gallons is a tierce of Wine.
- 63 gallons make one hoghead.
- 2 hogheads is a pipe or butt.
- 2 butts is a tun of Wine.

Of Dry Measure.

THE least denomination of Dry Measure is a Pint, which is taken from Troy weight : With these are measured all dry substances ; as Coals, Sand, Salt, Oats, Barley, Wheat, and the like ; for,

- 2 pints make a quart : 2 quarts a pottle.
- 2 pottles one gallon : 2 gallons one peck.
- 4 pecks 1 bushel Land-measure.
- 5 pecks 1 bushel Water-measure.
- 8 bushels make one quarter.
- 5 quarters one weigh.

Of Long Measure.

BY this Measure Glass, Board, Land, Pavement, Cloth, Tapestry, &c. is measured, whereby

- 3 barley-corns make an inch.
- 12 inches make one foot.
- 3 foot one yard ; 3 foot 9 inches one ell.
- 6 foot one fathom.
- 5 yards and an half, or 16 foot and an half, make 1 perch or pole.
- 40 poles or perches, 1 furlong or acre in length.
- 8 furlongs 1 English mile.

Of Time, Hours, Months, Years.

40 square poles or perches make 1 rood, or a quarter of an acre.

4 roods make one acre.

In Cloth Measure 4 nails make a quarter of a yard ; 3 quarters of a yard make an ell Flemish ; 4 quarters an English yard ; 5 quarters of a yard an ell English.

Of Time.

THE denominative parts of Time are originally deduced from the Suns motion in the Heavens, which is carried round the same from East to West, by a rapid motion, in one Natural day ; which day is divided into 24 supposed parts, called hours, and each hour is subdivided into 60 minutes. So that 60 Minutes make an hour.

24 Hours make a natural day.

7 Days make a week.

4 Weeks make a month, consisting of 28 days.

13 Months 1 day and 6 hours make a Year.

Yet in ordinary Computation of Time, the Year is divided into 12 unequal Calendar Months, whose Names and the Number of Days that each containeth, are as followeth,

	Days		Days
January hath	31	July	31
February	28	August	31
March	31	September	30
April	30	October	31
May	31	November	30
June	30	December	31

Comprehended in these four Rhymes.

*Thirty Days hath September,
April, June, and November,
February hath Twenty Eight alone,
All the rest have Thirty One.*

Observe that the six odd hours are reckoned but once in four Years, and then one whole day is added to the Year, making it to consist of 366 days, and is called Leap-Year. This day is added to February, which that Year hath 29 days.

The Tropical Year is, by Astronomers, reckoned to consist of 365 days, 5 hours, 49 minutes, 4 seconds, and 21 thirds.

The People of England observe four Quarter-days for Payment of Rents, Taxes, &c. namely, March 25. called Lady-day; June 24. called Midsummer-day; September 29. called Michaelmas-day; and December 25. called Christmas-day. In some Counties in England they make four other Quarter-days; that is, February 2. called Candlemas-day; May 1. called May-tide; August 1. called Lammastide; November 1. called All Saints-day.

Having briefly dispatht the Addition of Numbers, Weights, Measures and Time, I shall give an Example of Subtraction: As thus:

The Scholar's Prayer for the Morning.

Most mighty and most glorious Lord God, who art infinite in mercy, loving-kindness and truth, Heaven and Earth are full of thy Glory ; yet I that am but poor dust and ashes presume to present my self before thee this Morning, to beg such mercies as I have need of from thy Divine Majesty. Praised be thy Name, O God, for thy Favours extended toward me the Night passed ; that thou hast been pleased to refresh my weak and wearied Body with moderate rest and sleep, defend me, I beseech thee, this Day from all perils of Soul and Body ; to which end I commend my self, and all my actions unto thy protection and government, beseeching thee so to direct me in thy ways, that I may live to thy praise all my days, and at length may attain to Eternal Glory and Happiness. I must confess, O Lord, I have slighted thy goodness which would have led me to Repentance, hard-ning my heart against all those means which thou hast used for my amendment, and can therefore justly expect nothing from thee but Wrath and Judgment : But, O Lord, there is mercy with thee that thou mayst be feared ; O prepare my Heart to receive it by a deep and hearty Repentance for all my Sins : Let me remember my Creator in the days of my Youth, and redeem that precious Time which I can never recal. Breath into my Soul the spirit of Understanding, and be thou my School-master, that as I grow in Years, I may grow in Grace, and in the Knowledge of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Bless my Parents, Friends and Relations, and be my God and my Guide this Day and for ever, through the merits and mercies of my blessed Redeemer, who commanded his Disciples when they prayed to say, Our Father, &c.

The Scholars Prayer for the Evening.

MOST Glorious and Everlasting Lord God, who inhabitest Eternity, and dwellest in that Light which no Mortal can approach unto, the God in whom I live and have my being, I thine unworthy servant humbly prostrate my self before thy Divine Majesty, confessing and acknowledging that I was conceived in sin, and brought forth in iniquity ; and as if that had been but a small matter, I have heaped up actual Transgressions against thee, and have gone on in a daily course of repeating those provocations against thee, notwithstanding all thy Calls, and my own purposes of amendment : But, O Lord, I know thou wilt not the death of a sinner, have mercy therefore upon me, and work in me a sincere contrition, and a perfect hatred of my sins ; and let me not daily confess and repeat them, but from this instant let me give a divorce to my beloved Lusts. Let the blood of thy Son cleanse me from all impurity. Own me as thy Child, and shadow me under thy wings. Oh thou that never sleepest nor sleepest, be pleased to watch over me this Night, and make me ever mindful of that time when I shall lye down in the dust, and to prepare my Soul to meet my Lord at what hour soever he comes : And if thou shalt let me see the Light of the next Day, let me to serve thee better, and grow up daily in Learning and true Knowledge. Bless all that I am bound to pray for ; preserve my Friends and Relations ; do good to my Enemies ; and bestow whatever thou knowest necessary for me, in and through the Merits of Christ Jesus, who hath taught me to pray, Our Father, &c.
